Page 1 Deck slab and the 3 scalloped apron pieces

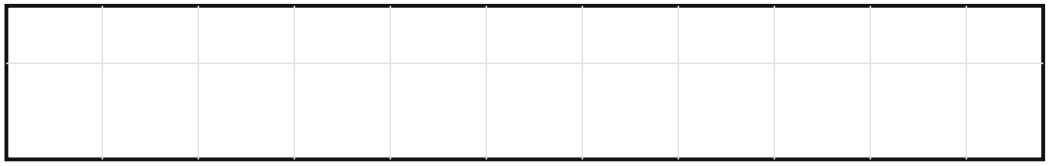
Finished chalet

About 5 in wide and 6 in deep at the walls, about 4 1/4 in tall to the ridge.

The front deck is 3/4 in deep at 2 in up, with the scalloped apron hanging below its edge.

About 136 square inches of dough: one batch, rolled 1/4 inch thick.

Use a board at least 14 x 10 in so the balcony, the log pile and the trees fit.



Deck slab

long edge to the front gable, 0.2 in past each corner

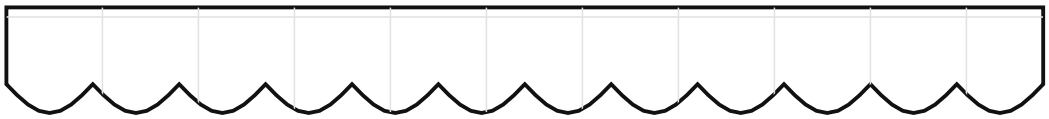
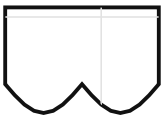
Scalloped apron, 3 pieces (pipe small red hearts on the front apron)

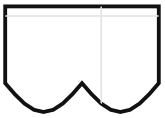


Front apron

scalloped edge down



End apron 1



End apron 2

The deck goes on the red band of the front gable, with its long edge flush to the gable. The front apron stands on edge against the deck front, scallops down, and the end aprons close the two short ends. The shutters are on page 6. Front door: bake the door cut-out beside the gable.

Solid line: cut. Dashed black shape: cut out before baking and leave open.
Red dashes: guide only, do not cut (deck band, log pile spot, roof lines, shutter slats).

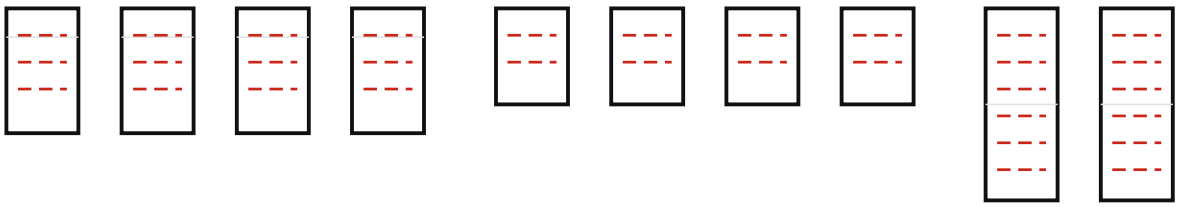
Shutters, cut 22. Ten for the front and twelve for the two long sides.

Front: 4 short (lower windows), 4 upper (flanking windows), 2 tall (balcony window)



Sides: 12 (3 windows on each long side, one shutter each side of every window)

Each shutter glues flat to the wall touching the window frame. Bake them on their own small pan, since they finish sooner. The slat lines are a piping guide only.

Short on the side walls? Skip the side shutters, or pipe them flat in green icing.
