Gingerbread Cowboy Cookie Template

Page 1 of 2: one cowboy cutter for 5 designs. Print at Actual Size or 100 percent and measure the red bar: it must be exactly 1 inch.

Gingerbread cowboy with hat, about 5 in tall

Guide key

1. Hatband: a band in a second color
2. Bandana: a triangle knotted at the neck
3. Vest: open front edges and armholes
4. Belt and buckle: two lines, a square
5. Skirt hem: the cowgirl skirt ends here
6. Chaps: color the leg outside the line
7. Boot tops: everything below is boot

Which guides each design uses

Classic cowboy	1, 2, 3, 4, 7
Cowgirl	1, 2, 5, 7
Sheriff	1, 3, 4, 7
Rodeo rider	1, 2, 4, 6, 7
Little buckaroo	1, 2

1 inch test bar

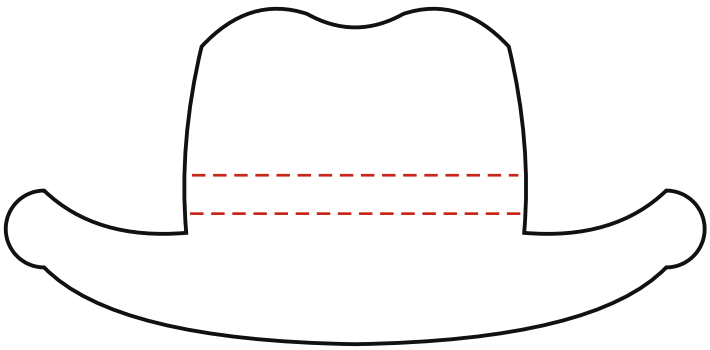

1 in square

Solid line: cut. Red dashes: piping guides, do not cut. Cut the hat brim tips and the armpits last, with the knife tip.

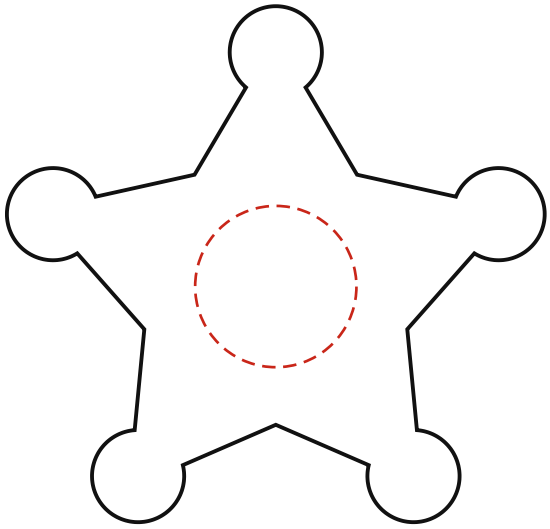

Freeze the cut cowboys 30 minutes before baking so the brim and the arms keep their shape.

Original shapes for home baking. Free printable from bestgingerbreadhouses.com

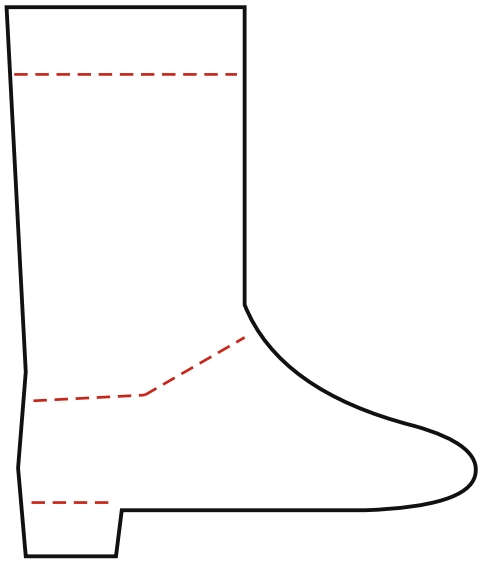

Gingerbread Cowboy Companion Shapes

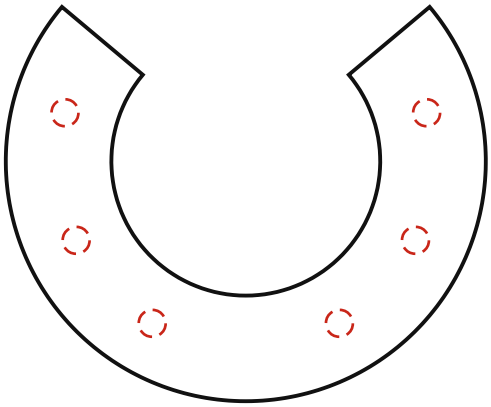

Cowboy hat, about 3 1/2 in wide

Sheriff star, about 2 3/4 in across

Cowboy boot, about 2 3/4 in tall

Horseshoe, about 2 1/2 in

1 inch test bar

1 in square

Hat: the two dashes are the hatband. Boot: shaft band, foot seam and heel line. Horseshoe: six nail-hole dots. Star: the center circle.

Keep the open end of the horseshoe facing up on the pan so the arms bake evenly.

Original shapes for home baking. Free printable from bestgingerbreadhouses.com